MAY 4, 2014

THE TORONTO
FRINGE
FRINGE FESTIVAL • NEXT STAGE • CREATION LAB

In space no one can hear you giggle.

When Dylan and Ruth receive a mysterious toy, they embark on a gravity-defying journey to the moon and beyond. Can they find a way to make it back home?

Rocketbaby is a fun, frenetic world of make-believe and imagination which reveals gender behaviours in a highly theatrical playground. Set in a time before Disney and Barbie, two siblings exhibit typically male and female ways of relating; aggression and nurture, kinetic play and emotive play. How can the two find the balance and happily play together?

Rocketbaby is a 45-minute performance for children (recommended ages 4 to 9).

The Arts Engine in association with The Toronto Fringe Festival present the new play, Rocketbaby
